b) Materiality criteria for the Promoters and Directors

Any outstanding litigation/arbitration proceedings involving any of the Promoters or Directors shall be considered “material” for the purposes of disclosure in the Offer Documents if the outcome of such litigation (irrespective of any amount involved in such litigation) could have a material adverse effect on the financial position, business, operations, performance, prospects or reputation of the Company.

Further, pre-litigation notices received by the Company, the Subsidiaries, the Promoters, the Directors or Group Companies (collectively the “Relevant Parties”) from third parties (excluding those notices issued by statutory/regulatory/ governmental/ tax authorities) shall, unless otherwise decided by the Board of Directors, not be considered as an outstanding litigation for the purposes of point (iv) above, until such time the Relevant Party is impleaded as a defendant or respondent in proceedings before any legal/arbitral forum.

II. Policy for identification of Group Companies

In terms of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, the term ‘group companies’ includes (i) such companies (other subsidiary(ies)) with which the issuer company has had related party transactions during the period for which financial information is disclosed in the offer document, as covered under the applicable accounting standards, and (ii) any other companies as considered material by the board of directors of the issuer.

In addition, for the purposes of point (ii) above, the policy on identification of any other ‘material’ companies for consideration as ‘Group Companies’ (other than those covered under the schedule of related party transactions as per the Restated Financial Statements), is as set out below.

For the purpose of disclosure in the Offer Documents, a company shall be considered material and will be disclosed as a ‘Group Company’ in the Offer Documents if: such company (a) is a member of the Promoter Group in terms of Regulation 2(1)(pp) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations; and (b) has entered into one or more transactions with the Company during the last completed full financial year and the most recent period (if applicable) of the Restated Financial Statements, which, individually or cumulatively in value, exceeds 10% of the total income of the Company as per the Restated Financial Statements of the last completed full financial year.
